DETAILED ACTION

Drawings

1. Figures 3 and 4 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). Corrected drawings in compliance with 37 CFR 1.121(d) are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The replacement sheet(s) should be labeled "Replacement Sheet" in the page header (as per 37 CFR 1.121(d)) so as not to obstruct any portion of the drawing figures. If the changes are not accepted by the examiner, the applicant will be notified and informed of any required corrective action in the next Office action. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Claim Objections

2. Claims 6 and 7 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Claim 6, lines 3 and 4, "a clearance" should be changed -- said clearance --.

Claim 7, line 3, "said first curved portion" lacks an antecedent basis.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

4. Claims 1-6 and 8 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Sato et al. (6,547,608).

Regarding claim 1, Sato et al., figure 8C, disclose a female terminal comprising:

- a terminal-inserting portion having a bottom wall (8C) and a resilient contact piece portion (3C) extending rearwardly from a front end edge of the bottom wall to a free end portion (12C); and
- a convex portion projecting toward the bottom wall is formed at the free end portion, when the resilient contact piece portion is resiliently deformed upon insertion of a male terminal (2), the convex portion is brought into contact with the bottom wall, a front side part of the resilient contact piece portion is spaced from the bottom wall with a clearance.

Regarding claim 2, figure 8C, the resilient contact piece portion including a first curved portion (AC1) by which the male terminal is clamped.

Regarding claim 3, the resilient contact piece portion extending almost parallel to an insertion direction of the male terminal except the first curved portion.

Regarding claim 4, figure 8C, a second curved portion (BC) on a top wall (7C) of the terminal-inserting portion.

Regarding claim 5, the first and second curved portions are opposed to each other.

Regarding claim 6, the resilient contact piece portion extending almost parallel to the bottom wall except the first curved portion.

Regarding claim 8, the convex portion having a semi-arc shape in cross-section.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 7 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Sato et al. (6,547,608 in figure 8C) in view of Sato et al. (6,547,608 in figure 6).

Sato et al., figure 8C, disclose the instant claimed invention as described above except for a third curved portion is formed on the bottom wall at a position corresponding to a first curved portion.

Sato et al., figure 6, disclose a female terminal having a contact (B10) which read on a third curved portion corresponding to a first curved portion (140). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify Sato et al., figure 8C to have the third curved portion, as taught by Sato et al., figure 6, in order to have more flexibility.
